FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

Fear Not, I Am with Thee

President Henry B. Eyring · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

President Eyring spoke about helping give the Lord's comfort to others. The Lord's promised comfort in Isaiah 41 and the hymn “How Firm a Foundation” (“Hymns,” No. 85) will become more important and more precious. Mortal tests are hard because we must grow in spiritual cleanliness and stature to live in God's presence; Heavenly Father gave us a Savior and the power to choose by faith to keep commandments, repent and come unto Him. The promise is not for the removal of challenges. The Lord sends faithful disciples to help Him keep His promise to succor others; we are invited to join Him in that work.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: Whom is the Lord inviting me to comfort for Him today?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “It is because He knows that we must grow in spiritual cleanliness and stature to be able to live in His presence. To make that possible, Heavenly Father gave us a Savior and the power to choose for ourselves by faith to keep His commandments and to repent and to come unto Him.”

> “The Lord sends faithful disciples to help Him keep His promise to succor others in their distress.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Isaiah 41:10
- Hymn “How Firm a Foundation” (Hymns, no. 85)
- Isaiah 53:4
- Alma 7:11–12
- Mosiah 18:8–9

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Whom is the Lord inviting me to comfort for Him today?
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Join the Lord in keeping His promise — help Him comfort and succor those in distress. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
