FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

The Gospel of Jesus Christ Is for All

President Dallin H. Oaks · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

President Dallin H. Oaks, President of the Church, closed the Sunday morning session speaking about overcoming through the Savior. Members both obey Amaleki's invitation and invite all others to "come unto Christ" (Omni 1:26). As President, he prays for what Heavenly Father wants for each of us — to be active members of the Church of Jesus Christ, proceeding forward on the covenant path into the eternities; we need one another's prayers. Each person is a work in progress with personal trials; whatever present or future concerns or struggles we face, the way to overcome them is to get closer to the Savior. Challenges of mortality provide opportunities to develop faith. Strong faith requires more than strong desire — it means daily trying, one step at a time, with prayer and scriptural learning. Reconciling conflicts between science and religion can take time and may build faith and humility; never let secular learning limit spiritual horizons. If sins are to be forgiven through His Atonement, we must comply with the conditions He has prescribed, including faith, repentance and baptism. He testified the gospel of Jesus Christ is for all and invited all to come unto Christ and help others do the same.
