FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

Fruit to Make One Happy

Elder Gary E. Stevenson · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Speaking especially to children of Primary age about the fruits of the gospel. Like a favorite fruit, gospel truths become sweet to us as we live them, bringing happiness and joy. He shared three fruits he loves: first, we are children of a loving Heavenly Father, our most important identity, which makes us stronger and kinder to others; second, the plan of happiness, with the Atonement of Jesus Christ at its center, so we can repent, be forgiven and progress; and third, the gift of the Holy Ghost, a member of the Godhead who warns, comforts and testifies. He invited listeners to love, share and invite, with words and actions.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: Which gospel truth has become sweetest to me as I've lived it — and whom could I invite to taste it?

3. KEY QUOTES

> "This knowledge makes us stronger. This knowledge also makes us kinder to others, knowing that everyone around us is our brother or sister."

> "'Your Heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, know you and love you.' Even though you are young, 'you are an important part of Their work.'"

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- 1 Nephi 8:10
- 1 Nephi 8:11
- 1 Nephi 8:12
- John 3:16
- 1 Nephi 11:21–36

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Which gospel truth has become sweetest to me as I've lived it — and whom could I invite to taste it?
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Love, share and invite — with words and actions — so others can taste the fruit that blesses you. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
