SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

The Ninety and Ten

Elder Michael A. Dunn · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Comparing mortality to an ultramarathon he was ready to quit long before the finish, he taught that races can devolve from running to walking to shuffling. The Savior bears our griefs and magnifies our smallest offerings. Giving 90% of a spiritual journey may take all we have; the Savior extends His hand for the final 10%.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Open with a brief personal experience related to the message, then introduce: Where am I shuffling right now, and what would “lengthening my stride” look like?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “The Redeemer rescues not by shortening our course but by helping us lengthen our stride.”

> “Don’t confuse the perceived invisibility of the Lord’s hand with the inveterate nature of the Lord’s heart.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Hymn “Lord, I Would Follow Thee” (Hymns, no. 220)
- Psalm 55:22
- 1 Thessalonians 5:17
- Isaiah 53:4
- 3 Nephi 13:8

5. ACTIVITY

Teach the message using one scripture and one quote, adding your own testimony and experience.

6. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Give what you can; trust the Savior for the final 10%. Close by extending the invitation and bearing testimony of Jesus Christ.
