SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

You Are Good Enough to Teach

Brother Gabriel W. Reid · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Speaking about teaching in the Church. The Lord invites all to teach His gospel, and wherever we teach — in classrooms, in the mission field, in our homes or one by one — He promises to help us do His work; we were never meant to do it alone. Before the Savior taught His disciples where to go and what to teach, He taught them who to become: His first lesson was about discipleship, and at the heart of discipleship is love. For the Master Teacher, every lesson was inspired by love for those He taught. Christ-centered teaching is rooted in relationships, and the inspired new Sunday schedule offers weekly opportunities to know and love those we teach, helping them come closer to the Savior and deepen their conversion — His pattern for every gospel lesson, even shorter ones. He invited all to come unto the Master Teacher, learn of Him and love Him, and He will help us love those we teach.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Open with a brief personal experience related to the message, then introduce: Whom do I teach — at church, at home or one by one — and how could I come to know and love them better?

3. KEY QUOTES

> "To teach like the Savior, we must love like the Savior!"

> "The impact of a gospel teacher is not just the message—it is the love of the messenger."

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Mark 1:17
- Matthew 4:19
- Mosiah 27:8–37
- Mosiah 28:1–3
- Alma 17:11

5. ACTIVITY

Teach the message using one scripture and one quote, adding your own testimony and experience.

6. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Come unto the Master Teacher — learn of Him and love Him, and let that love shape how you teach those around you. Close by extending the invitation and bearing testimony of Jesus Christ.
