FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

Jesus Lives to Lift

Elder Patrick Kearon · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Drawing on flying gliders as a teenager, he taught spiritual “lift” and “sink.” Lift can't be seen but can be felt through the Holy Spirit, drawing us toward Christ. Seek the feelings of the Holy Ghost and join those who are climbing; watch for subtle signs of sink and turn away decisively; and when you find lift, show others where and how to rise.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: What are the subtle signs of “sink” in my week?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “At the heart of our faith is the glorious truth that we have an adoring Father in Heaven, whose Son, our Saviour, loves to lift!”

> “We can learn to live in spiritual lift. And when we sink, our gentle Saviour is there to lift us up as we turn to Him.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Matthew 14:28–31
- Mark 5:35–42
- Luke 8:49–55
- Mark 9:17–27
- Isaiah 40:31

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are the subtle signs of “sink” in my week?
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Seek lift, turn decisively away from sink, and show others where to rise. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
