SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

O Be Wise

President D. Todd Christofferson · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Gambling has exploded, made continuous and private by smartphones, and disproportionately affects youth and young adults. Beyond lost money, it displaces saving, increases debt and brings family and social costs. Gambling is morally wrong — built on desiring something for nothing — and crowds out things of value. He pled for us to live on a higher plane and use saved time and resources for good.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Open with a brief personal experience related to the message, then introduce: What “good cause” could absorb time I currently spend on idle pursuits?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “For us as Latter-day Saints, overarching all other concerns is the fact that gambling is morally wrong. Gambling is built on the desire to obtain something for nothing.”

> “Today, I am pleading with all of us to live life on a higher plane.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Jacob 6:12 (“O be wise; what can I say more?”)
- Doctrine and Covenants 58:27
- Jacob 2:7–9
- 1 Corinthians 8:9–11
- Doctrine and Covenants 108:7

5. ACTIVITY

Teach the message using one scripture and one quote, adding your own testimony and experience.

6. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Refrain from gambling and use the time and resources saved for doing good. Close by extending the invitation and bearing testimony of Jesus Christ.
