SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

Closing Remarks

President Dallin H. Oaks · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

President Dallin H. Oaks, President of the Church, closed the conference. He said the messages of the conference and the Spirit of the Lord had inspired all to concentrate their worship, focus their learning and unite their testimonies on the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and His Father's plan. He invited everyone to revisit the conference messages, prayerfully ponder them and act on the principles taught, reminding listeners of the Lord's promise, "Unto him that receiveth I will give more" (2 Nephi 28:30). He invited the world, in person or virtually, to the Salt Lake Temple Celebration, when the renovated temple's doors open to the public on April 5, 2027, the first such opening since 1893, and announced "Dedicate," a new video series about the Salt Lake Temple premiering after the session, with more episodes and a virtual temple tour to come. He closed with a blessing of peace and contentment and his testimony that truth is to be found in the restored gospel of Jesus Christ.
