FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

The Sculpting of Our Souls

Sister Tamara W. Runia · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Tempering, refining experiences are part of necessary mortal growth — “all these things shall give thee experience.” The gospel isn't an umbrella that keeps the rain off; it's the solid rock we stand on during the storm. A godlike life is carved from the very things that make it hard, and God waits for our invitation before He really goes to work. She shared the sudden death of her son, a young father.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: Where am I still asking “why” instead of “what is supposed to be happening here?”

3. KEY QUOTES

> “God’s love has moved me from questions that begin with ‘why’ to reflections that begin, ‘I know that God loves me, so what is supposed to be happening here?’”

> “Christ’s work in your life and His love for you are bigger than your present story. And He can fix what feels badly broken.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Doctrine and Covenants 122:7
- Helaman 5:12
- Galatians 3:27
- 1 Nephi 11:16, 17
- 1 John 3:2

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where am I still asking “why” instead of “what is supposed to be happening here?”
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Invite God to do His sculpting work. He can fix what feels badly broken. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
