FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

Prophets, Seers, and Revelators

Elder Vaiangina Sikahema · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

In 1947 his grandparents sailed across the Tongan islands to hear a visiting apostle; their infant son died on the journey, yet they buried him and continued. People through the ages have yearned for prophetic voices. Today we can see and hear prophets on our phones, yet many take them for granted. What a blessing to live when apostles and prophets are on the earth.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: Do I treat conference as background noise or as an appointment?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “What a blessing it is to live in a time when apostles and prophets are on the earth.”

> “I suspect the Lord knew that even when we would have these devices (cell phones) to easily see and hear His anointed servants, many of us would still take them for granted.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Doctrine and Covenants 90:5

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Do I treat conference as background noise or as an appointment?
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Don't hold the oracles of God as a light thing; give prophetic words the effort earlier Saints sacrificed for. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
