FAMILY HOME EVENING · 15–20 MIN

The Ninety and Ten

Elder Michael A. Dunn · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Comparing mortality to an ultramarathon he was ready to quit long before the finish, he taught that races can devolve from running to walking to shuffling. The Savior bears our griefs and magnifies our smallest offerings. Giving 90% of a spiritual journey may take all we have; the Savior extends His hand for the final 10%.

Summary written for this site; read the official text for the full message.

2. OPEN

Sing a favorite hymn or Primary song, then ask: Where am I shuffling right now, and what would “lengthening my stride” look like?

3. KEY QUOTES

> “The Redeemer rescues not by shortening our course but by helping us lengthen our stride.”

> “Don’t confuse the perceived invisibility of the Lord’s hand with the inveterate nature of the Lord’s heart.”

4. SCRIPTURES CITED

- Hymn “Lord, I Would Follow Thee” (Hymns, no. 220)
- Psalm 55:22
- 1 Thessalonians 5:17
- Isaiah 53:4
- 3 Nephi 13:8

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where am I shuffling right now, and what would “lengthening my stride” look like?
2. Read the first quote together. What stands out to you, and why?

6. ACTIVITY

Let each family member share one experience or idea connected to the message. Younger children can draw it.

7. SUGGESTED INVITATION

Give what you can; trust the Savior for the final 10%. Choose one small family goal and check in at dinner during the week.
