SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

Consider Your Ways, and from This Day Will the Lord Bless You

Elder Ciro Schmeil · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Elder Ciro Schmeil, General Authority Seventy, spoke about making covenants with God. God did not leave His children alone on the journey to return to Him — two divine helps are the Savior, Jesus Christ, and covenants. The Savior knows us individually and will help us if we seek Him; we show our faith in Christ by making and keeping covenants with God. Through covenants we become yoked with the Savior and our burdens become lighter. Baptism is the first covenant and is renewed each week by partaking of the sacrament, which is essential to have the Spirit and strength to continue on the covenant path. In Haggai, the Israelites were commanded to rebuild the temple, did not make it a priority, were rebuked, then considered their ways and repented; the Lord said, “from this day will I bless you” (Haggai 2:19). Heavenly Father is not asking us to physically build the temple, but to build a strong relationship with Him and His Son through our covenants; He will magnify our efforts as we make the proper adjustments to make and keep covenants with Him.
