SACRAMENT MEETING TALK · 5–8 MIN

Sealed by the Holy Spirit of Promise

Elder David A. Bednar · October 2026 general conference

1. TALK OVERVIEW

Speaking about ordinances and covenants, with a focus on the sealing ordinance. A covenant is a solemn promise and enduring commitment between God and His children, received through sacred ordinances — holy acts performed by priesthood authority with spiritual purpose and eternal significance. Understanding ordinances helps us understand our covenants. Covenants and ordinances are spiritual credentials, and faithfulness keeps them valid to receive the promised blessings. The Holy Ghost is the Holy Spirit of Promise, who ratifies righteous acts as acceptable to God; during mortality that seal is conditional and can be forfeited through unrighteousness. The temple sealing of a man and a woman is a crowning covenant and ordinance; a spouse who violates covenants and does not repent loses the ratifying seal, while a faithful spouse who honors covenants and presses forward in faith remains worthy to receive the promised blessings.
