YOUTH CLASSES · 25 MIN

Take Upon Us His Name

Elder James G. O. Fantone · October 2026 general conference

Sunday youth classes now study the For the Strength of Youth guide (one chapter a month). Use this outline when leaders choose a conference message, such as a combined class, a fifth Sunday the bishopric assigns, a devotional or an activity.

ONE CORE TRUTH

Take His name by covenant — lose yourself in serving others, and find Him (and yourself).

0:00–2:00 — Welcome & prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- A youth from the class or quorum presidency welcomes everyone and invites someone to pray.
- Keep business to what can't wait; no separate counseling topic. Then start right away.

2:00–5:00 — Open · Teacher

- Ask: Where am I merely wearing His name as a badge, instead of serving Him by lifting and loving others?
- Invite someone to read: “The Savior’s invitation is not merely for us to add His name to our name like a badge of religious affiliation.”
- Give a quiet moment to ponder before anyone answers.

5:00–20:00 — Discuss one core truth · Everyone

- Q1. What does this truth teach us about Jesus Christ and how we follow Him?
- Q2. When have you seen this truth make a difference for someone your age?
- Optional, about 3 min: Turn to someone nearby and share your answer to Q2, then invite two or three people to share with everyone.
- Q3. What would living this look like at school, online or with friends this week?
- Let members answer one another. Resist answering every question yourself.

20:00–24:00 — Invite, testify, follow up · Teacher

- From the talk: Take upon the name of Jesus Christ by covenant — lose yourself in serving others with all your heart, might, mind and strength.
- Ask: “What do you feel impressed to do?” Give a minute to write it down privately.
- Bear brief testimony of Jesus Christ and this truth, or invite someone to.
- Next week, invite one or two youth to share how it went.

24:00–25:00 — Closing prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- Invite someone to give the closing prayer. End on time.

BEFORE SUNDAY

Elder James G.O. Fantone, General Authority Seventy, spoke about taking upon the name of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ invites all to take upon us His name and become more like Him by making and keeping covenants and serving others. Book of Mormon prophets taught that following baptism, taking upon oneself the name of Jesus Christ requires a lifelong commitment to serve Him. Latter-day Saints can learn from righteous, charitable examples of family members and full-time missionaries who demonstrate courageous service. When we genuinely take upon ourselves His name by losing ourselves in the service of others, something miraculous happens — a mighty change of heart that leads to true conversion. Taking upon the Savior’s name means more than a badge of religious affiliation; His invitation is to take His name by covenant and serve Him with all heart, might, mind and strength — by lifting, loving and serving others. As we lose our lives in His service, we will find Him, and we will find ourselves.

- Read the full talk and pray about what your class needs from it.
- Share the talk link a few days early so members come having read it.
- Teach one truth well. Meaningful discussion matters more than covering everything.
- Other scriptures the talk cites: Alma the Younger on a “mighty change” of heart
