YOUTH CLASSES · 25 MIN

Integrity and Virtue Lead to Happiness

Elder Quentin L. Cook · October 2026 general conference

Sunday youth classes now study the For the Strength of Youth guide (one chapter a month). Use this outline when leaders choose a conference message, such as a combined class, a fifth Sunday the bishopric assigns, a devotional or an activity.

ONE CORE TRUTH

Integrity, virtue and daily repentance lead to happiness and the Holy Ghost's companionship.

0:00–2:00 — Welcome & prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- A youth from the class or quorum presidency welcomes everyone and invites someone to pray.
- Keep business to what can't wait; no separate counseling topic. Then start right away.

2:00–5:00 — Open · Teacher

- Ask: Where do I need more integrity and virtue so the Holy Ghost can be my constant companion?
- Invite someone to read: "The virtuous, Christlike life necessary to sustain us and propel us along the covenant path has never been more important or challenging."
- Give a quiet moment to ponder before anyone answers.

5:00–20:00 — Discuss one core truth · Everyone

- Q1. Read Matthew 7:13–14 together. How does it help us understand this truth about following Jesus Christ?
- Q2. When have you seen this truth make a difference for someone your age?
- Optional, about 3 min: Turn to someone nearby and share your answer to Q2, then invite two or three people to share with everyone.
- Q3. What would living this look like at school, online or with friends this week?
- Let members answer one another. Resist answering every question yourself.

20:00–24:00 — Invite, testify, follow up · Teacher

- From the talk: Live with integrity and virtue; make repentance a constant day-to-day part of your life.
- Ask: "What do you feel impressed to do?" Give a minute to write it down privately.
- Bear brief testimony of Jesus Christ and this truth, or invite someone to.
- Next week, invite one or two youth to share how it went.

24:00–25:00 — Closing prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- Invite someone to give the closing prayer. End on time.

BEFORE SUNDAY

Elder Quentin L. Cook of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles spoke about integrity, virtue and happiness. As a new missionary, President David O. McKay passed a building with a stone above the doorway inscribed "What e'er thou art, act well thy part." In Heavenly Father's plan, integrity, virtue and happiness are intrinsically linked — true happiness is the outcome of integrity and virtue. That relationship is less well understood today; the founders of the United States emphasized life, liberty and happiness based on living a virtuous life. The Lord wants us to experience the joy of a virtuous life and richly rewards those who make sacrifices in His name. Covenant keepers are expected to live lives of virtue and integrity; the ultimate reward is the constant companionship of the Holy Ghost. Part of integrity is acknowledging faults to the Lord and repenting. When repentance is a constant day-to-day part of our lives, we can approach the Lord with integrity and receive His saving blessings. Integrity, virtue and ongoing repentance are the answer to today's challenges.

- Read the full talk and pray about what your class needs from it.
- Share the talk link a few days early so members come having read it.
- Teach one truth well. Meaningful discussion matters more than covering everything.
- Other scriptures the talk cites: Doctrine and Covenants 124:20; Matthew 5:3–11; 3 Nephi 12:1–11; Doctrine and Covenants 121:45
