YOUTH CLASSES · 25 MIN

The Gospel of Jesus Christ Is for All

President Dallin H. Oaks · October 2026 general conference

Sunday youth classes now study the For the Strength of Youth guide (one chapter a month). Use this outline when leaders choose a conference message, such as a combined class, a fifth Sunday the bishopric assigns, a devotional or an activity.

ONE CORE TRUTH

The gospel of Jesus Christ is for all — overcome by getting closer to the Savior, and help others come unto Him.

0:00–2:00 — Welcome & prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- A youth from the class or quorum presidency welcomes everyone and invites someone to pray.
- Keep business to what can't wait; no separate counseling topic. Then start right away.

2:00–5:00 — Open · Teacher

- Ask: What concern or struggle am I trying to overcome on my own instead of getting closer to Christ?
- Invite someone to read: “I pray for what our Heavenly Father wants for each of us—to be active members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, proceeding forward on the covenant path into the eternities.”
- Give a quiet moment to ponder before anyone answers.

5:00–20:00 — Discuss one core truth · Everyone

- Q1. Read Omni 1:26 together. How does it help us understand this truth about following Jesus Christ?
- Q2. When have you seen this truth make a difference for someone your age?
- Optional, about 3 min: Turn to someone nearby and share your answer to Q2, then invite two or three people to share with everyone.
- Q3. What would living this look like at school, online or with friends this week?
- Let members answer one another. Resist answering every question yourself.

20:00–24:00 — Invite, testify, follow up · Teacher

- From the talk: Get closer to the Savior — come unto Christ, and help others do the same. The gospel of Jesus Christ is for all.
- Ask: “What do you feel impressed to do?” Give a minute to write it down privately.
- Bear brief testimony of Jesus Christ and this truth, or invite someone to.
- Next week, invite one or two youth to share how it went.

24:00–25:00 — Closing prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- Invite someone to give the closing prayer. End on time.

BEFORE SUNDAY

President Dallin H. Oaks, President of the Church, closed the Sunday morning session speaking about overcoming through the Savior. Members both obey Amaleki’s invitation and invite all others to “come unto Christ” (Omni 1:26). As President, he prays for what Heavenly Father wants for each of us — to be active members of the Church of Jesus Christ, proceeding forward on the covenant path into the eternities; we need one another’s prayers. Each person is a work in progress with personal trials; whatever present or future concerns or struggles we face, the way to overcome them is to get closer to the Savior. Challenges of mortality provide opportunities to develop faith. Strong faith requires more than strong desire — it means daily trying, one step at a time, with prayer and scriptural learning. Reconciling conflicts between science and religion can take time and may build faith and humility; never let secular learning limit spiritual horizons. If sins are to be forgiven through His Atonement, we must comply with the conditions He has prescribed, including faith, repentance and baptism. He testified the gospel of Jesus Christ is for all and invited all to come unto Christ and help others do the same.

- Read the full talk and pray about what your class needs from it.
- Share the talk link a few days early so members come having read it.
- Teach one truth well. Meaningful discussion matters more than covering everything.
- Other scriptures the talk cites: Doctrine and Covenants 20:17–21; Moses 1:31–33; Moses 2:1–2; 3 Nephi 11:14
