YOUTH CLASSES · 25 MIN

You Are Good Enough to Teach

Brother Gabriel W. Reid · October 2026 general conference

Sunday youth classes now study the For the Strength of Youth guide (one chapter a month). Use this outline when leaders choose a conference message, such as a combined class, a fifth Sunday the bishopric assigns, a devotional or an activity.

ONE CORE TRUTH

You are good enough to teach — the Lord will help you, and teaching like the Savior begins with loving like the Savior.

0:00–2:00 — Welcome & prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- A youth from the class or quorum presidency welcomes everyone and invites someone to pray.
- Keep business to what can't wait; no separate counseling topic. Then start right away.

2:00–5:00 — Open · Teacher

- Ask: Whom do I teach — at church, at home or one by one — and how could I come to know and love them better?
- Invite someone to read: “To teach like the Savior, we must love like the Savior!”
- Give a quiet moment to ponder before anyone answers.

5:00–20:00 — Discuss one core truth · Everyone

- Q1. Read Mark 1:17 together. How does it help us understand this truth about following Jesus Christ?
- Q2. When have you seen this truth make a difference for someone your age?
- Optional, about 3 min: Turn to someone nearby and share your answer to Q2, then invite two or three people to share with everyone.
- Q3. What would living this look like at school, online or with friends this week?
- Let members answer one another. Resist answering every question yourself.

20:00–24:00 — Invite, testify, follow up · Teacher

- From the talk: Come unto the Master Teacher — learn of Him and love Him, and let that love shape how you teach those around you.
- Ask: “What do you feel impressed to do?” Give a minute to write it down privately.
- Bear brief testimony of Jesus Christ and this truth, or invite someone to.
- Next week, invite one or two youth to share how it went.

24:00–25:00 — Closing prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- Invite someone to give the closing prayer. End on time.

BEFORE SUNDAY

Speaking about teaching in the Church. The Lord invites all to teach His gospel, and wherever we teach — in classrooms, in the mission field, in our homes or one by one — He promises to help us do His work; we were never meant to do it alone. Before the Savior taught His disciples where to go and what to teach, He taught them who to become: His first lesson was about discipleship, and at the heart of discipleship is love. For the Master Teacher, every lesson was inspired by love for those He taught. Christ-centered teaching is rooted in relationships, and the inspired new Sunday schedule offers weekly opportunities to know and love those we teach, helping them come closer to the Savior and deepen their conversion — His pattern for every gospel lesson, even shorter ones. He invited all to come unto the Master Teacher, learn of Him and love Him, and He will help us love those we teach.

- Read the full talk and pray about what your class needs from it.
- Share the talk link a few days early so members come having read it.
- Teach one truth well. Meaningful discussion matters more than covering everything.
- Other scriptures the talk cites: Matthew 4:19; Mosiah 27:8–37; Mosiah 28:1–3; Alma 17:11
