YOUTH CLASSES · 25 MIN

Teach Truth with Love

Elder Clark G. Gilbert · October 2026 general conference

Sunday youth classes now study the For the Strength of Youth guide (one chapter a month). Use this outline when leaders choose a conference message, such as a combined class, a fifth Sunday the bishopric assigns, a devotional or an activity.

ONE CORE TRUTH

Stand for truth with love — for disciples of Jesus Christ, truth and love always walk together.

0:00–2:00 — Welcome & prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- A youth from the class or quorum presidency welcomes everyone and invites someone to pray.
- Keep business to what can't wait; no separate counseling topic. Then start right away.

2:00–5:00 — Open · Teacher

- Ask: Do I need greater conviction or greater charity to teach truth with love — and where can I start this week?
- Invite someone to read: “It takes courage to stand for truth. It takes even more courage to stand for truth with love.”
- Give a quiet moment to ponder before anyone answers.

5:00–20:00 — Discuss one core truth · Everyone

- Q1. Read 1 John 4:19 together. How does it help us understand this truth about following Jesus Christ?
- Q2. When have you seen this truth make a difference for someone your age?
- Optional, about 3 min: Turn to someone nearby and share your answer to Q2, then invite two or three people to share with everyone.
- Q3. What would living this look like at school, online or with friends this week?
- Let members answer one another. Resist answering every question yourself.

20:00–24:00 — Invite, testify, follow up · Teacher

- From the talk: Stand for truth with love — avoid contention, find common ground, be a light, hold to truth, and stay anchored in Jesus Christ.
- Ask: “What do you feel impressed to do?” Give a minute to write it down privately.
- Bear brief testimony of Jesus Christ and this truth, or invite someone to.
- Next week, invite one or two youth to share how it went.

24:00–25:00 — Closing prayer · Class or quorum presidency

- Invite someone to give the closing prayer. End on time.

BEFORE SUNDAY

Speaking about standing for truth with love. Standing for truth takes courage, and standing for truth with love takes even more. Drawing on teachings of President Dallin H. Oaks, he shared five principles: avoid overly contentious settings, where tense moments make it harder to see what is really causing someone’s protests; find common ground, as the Savior did, for “we love him, because he first loved us”; be a light, which opens more doors than any pointed argument; hold to truth even in outreach, because minimizing God’s laws separates us from the One who loves others most; and stay anchored in Jesus Christ, asking ourselves whether we carry Christlike attributes as we strive to stand for truth with love. For disciples of Jesus Christ, truth and love always walk together — for some this will require greater conviction, for others greater charity, and the Lord will help us.

- Read the full talk and pray about what your class needs from it.
- Share the talk link a few days early so members come having read it.
- Teach one truth well. Meaningful discussion matters more than covering everything.
- Other scriptures the talk cites: John 8:11; Moroni 7:45
